VOLUME 6 INDEX

NO. 1, FALL 1995	1–119
NO. 2, WINTER 1995	121–223
NO. 3, SPRING 1996	225–326
NO. 4, SUMMER 1996	327–442

A

Abuse: and accountability, 121, 142–143; in nonprofit organizations, 93–100, 127–128. See also Accountability: current crisis in; Scandal

Abzug, R., "New Frontiers: Women and Girls Encounter the Nonprofit Sector," 311–315

Accountability: alignment of, with behavior, 185–187, 189; in Australian nonprofit sector, 307–308; of boards, 396, 398; of chief executive officers, 398; conflicts in, 150, 178–179, 191–192; constituencies of, 158–161, 165–166, 176–179, 191–193; and constitutional freedoms, 122, 129–132; conversations for, 189–193; through corporate group sponsors, 133–135; current crisis in, 121, 127–128, 347–348; current crisis in, and legal framework, 149–154; current crisis in, sources of, 136–137; definition of, 173–175; demographic diversity and, 166–167; and donor inequality of wealth, 132–133; economic perspective on, 122, 157–169; as enabling versus monitoring process, 183–193; ethical perspective on, 122–123, 171–179; and felt responsibility, 183–193; and fixing the exception, 181–182; and funding requirements, 132–133; globalization and, 169, 191–192; and government role in American life, 128–129, 149–150; historical perspective on, 122, 127–137, 176–177; importance of, in organizations, 182–183; information technology and, 167–169; intrinsic versus external control for, 183–193; legal framework of, 122, 141–154, 348; of managers, 157–169; through market discipline, 166; in national nonprofit associations, 347–363; nonprofit wealth and, 132; in organizational life, 181–193; and organizational structure, 327, 347–363; principal-agent theory and, 164–166, 186–187; public choice theory and, 158–161; and public confidence, 348; and responsibility, 123, 174–175, 183–193; and role of government, 128–129; through self-regulation, 183–193, 347–363; social choice theory and, 161–164; and the social promise, 187–189; and social trends, 158; and stakeholders' authority, 146–147, 151–152; statement of principles for, 123, 124–125; think tank on, 121–122; and twentieth century principles, 135–136. See also Constituencies for accountability; Legal accountability

"Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: A Historical Perspective," 127–139

"Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Economic Perspective," 157–170

"Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Ethical Perspective," 171–180

"Accountability in Organizational Life: Problem or Opportunity for Nonprofits?" 181–195

"Accountability of Nonprofit Organizations and Those Who Control Them: The Legal Framework," 141–156

"Accountable Not-for-Profit Organization, The," 123, 124–125

Additional compensation pay systems (ACPS): current practice of, in nonprofits, 292–293; defined, 293; and employee motivation, 294–295, 297–298; in for-profit sector, 295–296; future research for, 301–302; legality of, 292–293; relationship of, to productivity, 294–301; validity of, 295–301

Affirmative action, 167

Age, organizational: and organizational structure, 376; and volunteer-managed organizational effectiveness, 276–277, 286; women on boards and, 248, 249, 250, 251. See also Life-cycle models

 © Jossey-Bass Publishers

Agreement, 184
Alignment: of accountability and behavior, 185–187, 189; of responsibility and felt responsibility, 184
Altruism, impure, 23–24. See also Motivation, donor; Motivation, employee; Motivation, volunteer
Alvarado, E. I., "The Validity of Supplementary Pay Systems in Nonprofit Organizations," 291–304
America's Nonprofit Sector: A Primer (Salamon), reviewed, 423–428
American Association of Retired Persons, 160
American Bar Association, 173
American Cancer Society, 10, 11, 12, 348
American Express Company, 403–404, 405
American Forestry Association, 407, 410
American Medical Association, 160
American Red Cross, 348; profits and donations study of, 21–38
American Rivers, 407
Angulo, J., "Languages, Ideologies, and Cultures in Nonprofit Boards," 227–240
A. P. Smith Manufacturing Company v. Barlow (98 A.2d 581), 177
Answerability, 175
Aramony, W., 94, 95–98, 127
Arrow's impossibility theorem, 161–164
Articles: "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Economic Perspective," 157–170; "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Ethical Perspective," 171–180; "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: A Historical Perspective," 127–139; "Accountability of Nonprofit Organizations and Those Who Control Them: The Legal Framework," 141–156; "Accountability in Organizational Life: Problem or Opportunity for Nonprofits?" 181–195; "Board Performance and Organizational Effectiveness in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations," 381–402; "Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379; "Careers in the Third Sector," 331–345; "Do Profits 'Crowd Out' Donations, or Vice Versa? The Impact of Revenues from Sales on Donations to Local Chapters of the American Red Cross," 21–36; "Factors Characterizing the Most Effective Nonprofits Managed by Volunteers," 271–289; "Languages, Ideologies, and Cultures in Nonprofit Boards," 227–240; "Managing Traditionality and Strategic Change in Nonprofit Organizations," 3–20; "Nonprofit Social Services in Moscow: Leadership and Administrative Issues," 39–54; "The Sexual Division of Leadership in Voluntary Emergency Medical Service Squads," 55–66; "Structure and Accountability: A Study of National Nonprofit Associations," 347–365; "Volunteers in Charity Retailing: Recruitment and Training," 255–270; "Women on Boards of Nonprofits: What Difference Do They Make?" 241–254
Aspen Institute Nonprofit Research Sector Research Fund, 211
Asymmetric information, 160
Attorneys general, and legal accountability, 144, 151
Austen, J., 106
Australia: accountability in, 307–308; government role in, 308–309; Industry Commission report of, 225, 305–310; nonprofit career study in, 327, 331–344; nonprofit sector in, 306–307, 334–335; quality improvement in, 309–310

B

Bailey, D., "Structure and Accountability: A Study of National Nonprofit Associations," 347–365
Balda, J. B., "Legal Issues for Nongovernment Organizations in Crisis," 419–421
Bang, J. K., 105–106
Bania, N., "Structure and Accountability: A Study of National Nonprofit Associations," 347–365
Barnes Foundation, 150
Barnett, S. A., 104–105
Baron, P., "Saint Susan University," 197–201
Behavior: alignment of, with accountability, 185–186; standards of, 175
Belyaeva, N., 47
Benchmarking, 166

Bielefeld, W., "Resources for Scholars, Practitioners, and Policymakers: Two Introductions to the Nonprofit Sector," 423–428
Billis, D., "Editors' Notes," 1–2, 225–226, 327–329
Blue Cross, West Virginia, 127–128
Blue River of Truth, The: Literature and Philanthropy," 103–111
Board culture: ethnographic study of, method of, 229–230; and ideology, 228–229; and language, 227–239
Board development: and organizational effectiveness, 396, 399; performance of, 392
Board effectiveness: and board activities, 386, 390–394; board member assessments of, 390–394; chief executive officer assessments of, 390–394; decision process approach to, 385–387; measures of, 244–245, 385–387, 398–399; relationship of, to overall organizational effectiveness, 327, 381–399. See also Organizational effectiveness
Board minutes, 234–235
Board performance. See Board effectiveness
"Board Performance and Organizational Effectiveness in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations," 381–402
Boards: accountability of, 396; assessments of, on board effectiveness, 390–394; assessments of, on organizational effectiveness, 389–390; committee structure of, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; communication within, 227–239; community profile of, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; corporate phase of, 369; cyclical model of, 369; distribution of responsibilities of, with chief executive officers, 397–398; formalization of, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; formalization of, measures of, 246, 283, 372; founding phase of, 369; governing stage of, 368; institutional/fundraising stage of, 368–369; involvement of, in cause-related marketing, 414–415; involvement of, with governance, by life-cycle stage, 371, 373, 374; involvement of, with fundraising, by life-cycle stage, 371–372, 373, 374, 377; involvement of, with operations, by life-cycle stage, 371, 373, 374; involvement of, with volunteers, by life-cycle stage, 371, 374; leading versus leader-following types of, 368; and legal accountability, 144–146, 152; life-cycle models applied to, 327, 367–377; manners-related language of, 232–235; member versus chief executive officer assessments of, 390–394, 395; mission-related language of, 230–231; operations-related language of, 231–232; and organizational values, 225; organizing stage of, 368; power distribution in, types of, 246; process of, measures of, 245–246; ratifying phase of, 369; recruitment to, by life-cycle stage, 371, 373, 374; responsibilities of, as perceived by board members and chief executive officers, 390–394, 397–398, 399; role of metaphorical language in, 227–239; size of, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; and strategic planning, 435; structure of, measures of, 246; supermanaging phase of, 369; and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 278–280, 281, 286; women on, impact of, 225, 241–252; women on, proportion of, 243–252
"Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379
Bogart, W. T., "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Economic Perspective," 157–170
Bonus pay, 291, 293, 295–296. See also Additional compensation pay systems
Book Reviews: "Charting Unexplored Territory: Nonprofit Funding Relations and the Nonprofit Market Relationship," 203–208; "New Frontiers: Women and Girls Encounter the Nonprofit Sector," 311–315; "Resources for Scholars, Practitioners, and Policymakers: Two Introductions to the Nonprofit Sector," 423–428; "Sex, Greed, and Nonprofit Mismanagement: A Review Essay," 93–101
Borowski, N. M., Free Ride: The Tax-Exempt Economy, 93–101
Boston, Massachusetts, volunteer-managed nonprofit organizations study, 271–287

Bowen, W. G., Charitable Nonprofits, The: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 423–428
Boy Scouts of America, 167, 169
Bradshaw, P., "Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379; "Women on Boards of Nonprofits: What Difference Do They Make?" 241–254
Bremner, R. H., "The Blue River of Truth: Literature and Philanthropy," 103–111
Brilliant, E. L., United Way, The: Dilemmas of Organized Charity, 93–101
Broadbridge, A., "Volunteers in Charity Retailing: Recruitment and Training," 255–270
Buck Trust, 150
Buhl, L. C., 114–115
Bulletin Board, 117–119, 221–223, 325–326, 441–442
Business contracting, with higher education institutions: in case study, 197–201; causal factors of, 217–219. See also Cause-related marketing; Environmental cause-related marketing

C

Calmeadow, 85
Canada: nonprofit board life-cycle study in, 370–377; philanthropy in, 85–91; versus United States, 87–88, 377; volunteerism in, 85–91; women on boards study in, 225, 241–252
Canadian Centre for Philanthropy, 85, 88–91, 370
Career development motivation, 339
Careers: Australian study of, 335–344; commitment and, 338–340, 341; Driver's four career concepts model of, 332–333, 341; family demands and, 336, 337, 342, 344; gender and, 334, 337, 341–342, 343–344; job movement and, 336–337; job selection motivations and, 337–340; linear pattern of, 332–333, 340–341; in nonprofit sector, 333–344; in nonprofit sector, motivations for, 337–340; and organizational sectors, 333–335; part-time versus full-time, 337; personal development and, 341; progression in, 337; spiral pattern of, 332, 341, 343; steady-state pattern of, 332, 343; transitory pattern of, 332, 343; work environment and, 340, 341
"Careers in the Third Sector," 331–345
CARF surveys, 385
Carnegie Corporation, 135
Cataloguing terminology, 213
Cause-related marketing (CRM), 327; benefits of, to corporations, 406; benefits of, to nonprofit organizations, 404; versus corporate philanthropy, 406, 416; versus corporate social responsibility, 405–406, 416; environmental, extent of, 406–410; environmental, as percentage of budget, 410; examples of, 406–409; genesis of, 403–404; issues of, 410–412; meaning of, to corporations, 405–406; as proportion of corporate financial sponsorship, 410; strategic funding trends and, 410–412; theoretical perspectives on, 404–406. See also Environmental cause-related marketing
"Cause-Related Marketing, Fundraising, and Environmental Nonprofit Organizations," 403–418
Center for Marine Conservation, 407
Centrality, 184, 185
Change. See Organizational change
Charismatic leaders: and nonprofit mismanagement, 93; in Russian nonprofits, 46–47. See also Leadership
Charitable Nonprofits, The: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics (Bowen, Nygren, Turner, Duffy), reviewed, 423–428
Charitable Organizations in Australia, 305
Charitable trusts, and legal accountability, 144, 146
Charity Foundation Empathy, 43, 46–47, 49, 51
Charity retailing: overview of, in United Kingdom, 256–257; volunteer recruitment for, 260–263, 265–266; volunteer training for, 263–264, 266–267; volunteers in, 255–267. See also Commercial ventures
"Charting Unexplored Territory: Nonprofit Funding Relations and the Nonprofit Market Relationship," 203–208
Chase Lincoln First Bank, 406

Chief executive officers: assessments by, of board effectiveness, 390–394; assessments by, of organizational effectiveness, 389–390; board accountability and, 398; board distribution of responsibilities with, 397–398; board evaluation of, and organizational effectiveness, 393, 397–398; salaries of, 94, 178; women as, 243–252
Child care needs, and nonprofit career patterns, 336, 337, 342, 344
Chisolm, L. B., "Accountability of Nonprofit Organizations and Those Who Control Them: The Legal Framework," 141–156
Church philanthropy: in Canada, 86–87; and equality, 132. See also Religious organizations
Classification systems: grass-roots associations in, 318–323; Internal Revenue Service, 424; International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations (ICNPO), 318–321; member-serving versus public-serving distinction in, 320–321; National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 317–318; of nonprofit organizations, 225–226, 317–323; suggested improvements to, 318–323
Client-consultant relationship, 80–81. See also Consultants
Clients, and legal accountability, 147
Clinton, B., 411
Coca Cola, 198
Collective action, logic of, 158–161
Collective consumption, 159
Collective decision making, 161–164; and demographic diversity, 166–167; and information technology, 168
Colleges, and tax exempt status, 94. See also Universities
Commentary, 113–116, 217–220
Commercial philanthropy, 104–105
Commercial ventures: impact of, on donations, 21–36; in Russian nonprofit sector, 49; volunteers in, 255–267. See also Cause-related marketing; Charity retailing; Environmental cause-related marketing; Sales
Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF), 385
Committee structure: of boards, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; of volunteer-managed nonprofits, effectiveness and, 281–282, 286
Communication. See Language
Community-based fundraising, 91
Community development organizations, revenue management in, 203–208
Community involvement, board performance of, 393
Compassion, 107–108
Compensation: employee motivation and, 341, 343; executive, 94, 178; gender and, 334; job movement and, 337; and performance-based employee incentive pay systems, 225; supplementary, 291–302. See also Additional compensation pay systems; Rewards
Competencies, organizational, 8
Congregation groups, integral versus nonintegral, 319, 321, 322
Congressional testimony, 210
Congruence of intent, 187
Connell, M. P., interviewed, 85–91
"Conscience money," 105
Consensus making: and demographic diversity, 166–167; economic theory of, 161–164
Conservation International, 407, 410
Constituencies for accountability: demographic diversity and, 166–167, 192; and ethical accountability, 176–179; forming of, 161; globalization and, 169, 191–192; information technology and, 167–169, 192–193; in principal-agent theory, 165–166; in public choice theory, 159–161
Consultants, fundraising: client relationship with, 80–81; long-term effectiveness of, 67–70; and organizational consulting models, 70–81; organizational consulting role of, 82–83; role recommendations for, 81–83; roles of, 71–77; tasks of, 70–71
Contingency theory, 5–6
Contingent pay-for-performance, 293, 298–299. See also Additional compensation pay systems
Continuity: and accountability, 182; balancing of, with change, 17–18; in organizational theories, 8–9; and traditionality, 9; value of, for nonprofit organizations, 4, 16–17. See also Traditionality

Convenience, and job selection, 338, 339
Conversations for accountability, 189–191; and diversity, 192; and globalization, 191–192; and information technology, 192–193; model of, 190
Core expertise, and traditionality, 10–11, 14, 16
Corporate fundraising: in Canada, 89–90; principles of, 115–116. See also Cause-related marketing; Fundraising
Corporate group sponsors, 133–134; diversity and, 134; secularization and, 134–135
Corporate-nonprofit contracting: in case study, 197–201; causal factors of, 217–219. See also Cause-related marketing
Corporate philanthropy: versus cause-related marketing, 405–406; as gift giving versus business exchange, 113–115; for local en vironmental causes, 412–413. See also Cause-related marketing; Environmental cause-related marketing
Corporate social responsibility: versus cause-related marketing, 405–406; defined, 405
Corporate structure: accountability within, 360; affiliate/national organization relationships within, 360; characteristics of, 357–358; division of responsibilities within, 354, 356, 359–360; national associations with, by field of service and budget, 352; in nonprofit organizations, 350–353; versus trade and federal structures, 356, 359–360. See also Organizational structure
Corporation law, and legal accountability, 144–146
Corruption: in nonprofit organizations, 93–100; remedies for, 99–100. See also Abuse; Scandal
Council of Better Business Bureaus (CBBB) Philanthropic Advisory Service, 415
Counterideology, 228
Covenant House, 142, 347
CPR classes, 34, 35
Credibility, historical, 186
Credit card cause-related marketing, 403–404, 410. See also Cause-related marketing
Credit unions, nonprofit, 432–433
Crowd out: and economic theories, 22–24; and managerial preference, 32–34; testing for, in American Red Cross study, 24–31

D

Daley, J. M., "Languages, Ideologies, and Cultures in Nonprofit Boards," 227–240
Dart, R., "Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379
Data bases, on nonprofit organizations, 213
Decision making, collective, 161–164
Developmentally disabled adults service organizations: demand for, 382; nonprofit versus for-profit, 382; regional center oversight of, 385; in southern California, 387–388; study of board and organizational effectiveness in, 382–399
Dictatorship, hidden, 162, 164
Directors, legal accountability of, 144–146, 152. See also Boards
Disaster relief, 419–421
Dispute resolution, board performance of, 393, 397
Diversity: and accountability, 158, 166–167, 192; and felt responsibility, 192
"Do Profits 'Crowd Out' Donations, or Vice Versa? The Impact of Revenues from Sales on Donations to Local Chapters of the American Red Cross," 21–36
Doctor-patient model of consulting, 78–80
Dodge v. Ford Motor Company (170 N.W. 668), 176, 177
Donations: impact of profits on, 21–36; managerial preference for, versus sales, 32–34, 36; in Russian nonprofit sector, 49; tax price of, 27–28
Donors: attitudes of, towards mandatory regulation, 348; equality versus inequality of, 132–133; as impure altruists, 23–24; and legal accountability, 146–147; mixed motives of, 105–107; women as, 225, 311–315. See also Motivation, donor
Dubliners (Joyce), 105
Duffy, E. A., Charitable Nonprofits, The: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 423–428

E

Eastern Europe, nonprofit sector in, 40. See also Russian nonprofits

Eckel and Steinberg model of pricing, 23
Economic theory: and accountability, 157–169; of collective decision making, 161–164; and nonprofits in market economy, 203–208; principal-agent, 164–166, 205; of public choice, 158–161
Editors' Notes, 1–2, 121–124, 225–226
Electoral cycles, 163
Emergency medical service (EMS) squads: model of leadership of, 58–64; sexual division of leadership in, 55–65; work of, 57–58
Empire Blue Cross, 128
Employee harassment, 95–96, 98–100
Employees: additional compensation pay systems for, validity of, 291–302; attitudes of, in nonprofit versus other organizations, 333; career patterns of, 205, 327, 331–344; commitment of, 338–340, 341; preferred work modes of, 340; volunteering of, 339–340. See also Careers; Motivation, employee; Staff
Environment: and organizational change, 11–15; and organizational form, 5–6
Environmental cause-related marketing (ECRM): board involvement in, 414–415; cause-related marketing committee for, 413–415; and corporate-environmental relations, 410, 416; examples of, 406–410; growth in, 410; recommendations for implementing, for local organizations, 412–416; regulations and guidelines for, 415–416; reviewing corporations for, 414; saturation in, 412; sponsorship development for, 415; strategic funding trends and, 410–412. See also Cause-related marketing
Environmental Defense Fund, 411
Environmental organizations: cause-related marketing alliances of, 406–410; donors to, demographics of, 412; foundations and, 411–412; funding trends of, 404, 410–412; local versus national, 412; public attitudes towards, 411, 412; relationships of, with corporations, 404, 406, 410, 416
Essentiality, 184, 185
Ethical self-discipline, 172
Ethics: and accountability, 122–123, 171–179; and constituencies, 176–179; and defining accountability, 173–175; versus external regulation, 172. See also Accountability
Evolutionary theories, 7–8, 14–15
Excellence standards, for accountability, 153, 166
Exchange, history of, 187
Executive committees, and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 279
Exit/voice theory, 361
Expectancy theory, 294–295
Expectations: clarity in, 185; conflicting, 178–179; and felt responsibility, 184, 185; legitimate, 175; shared, 182, 185
Expert model of consulting, 77–80

F

"Factors Characterizing the Most Effective Nonprofits Managed by Volunteers," 271–289
Families Together (FAMTO), 419–421
Fearful Responsibility, A (Howells), 107
Features: "An Interview with Bill Scales," 305–310; "An Interview with Martin P. Connell," 85–91; "Legal Issues for Nongovernment Organizations in Crisis," 419–421; "Saint Susan University," 197–201
Feder, A., 47
Federal structure, 350–353; accountability within, 360–362; characteristics of, 357–358; division of responsibilities within, 354; example of, 361–362; national associations with, by field of service and budget, 352; versus other structures, 353–360. See also Organizational structure
Feminism, and division of leadership, 55–56
File, K., 115
Financial disclosure: and accountability, 175, 178; Internal Revenue Service requirements of, 148, 154. See also Public scrutiny; Reporting
Financial management, board performance of, 393, 397
First Aid classes, 34, 36
Fisher, J. M., Women as Donors, Women as Philanthropists, 311–315
Fletcher, K., "Roles Consultants Play in Successful Fundraising Interventions," 67–83

Folklore, 212
Ford Motor Company, 176, 177
Foregone Conclusion, A (Howells), 108
Formalization: board, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; measures of, 246, 283, 372; and volunteer-managed organizational effectiveness, 278, 282–283, 285, 286; and women on boards, 248, 249, 250
For-profit organizations: additional compensation pay systems in, 295–296, 300–301; employment in, 333, 334; mission of, versus nonprofit organizations, 4; for social services, 382; strategic change and, 3–4
Foundation for New Era Philanthropy, 142
Foundations: environmental groups sponsored by, 411–412; and tax exemption, 94, 148, 153
Free Ride: The Tax-Exempt Economy (Gaul & Borowski), reviewed, 93–101
Free-rider problem, 159–161
Friends of the Earth Foundation, 411
From the Field: "Cause-Related Marketing, Fundraising, and Environmental Nonprofit Organizations," 403–418; "Roles Consultants Play in Successful Fundraising Interventions," 67–83; "The Validity of Supplementary Pay Systems in Nonprofit Organizations," 291–304
Fry, R. E., "Accountability in Organizational Life: Problem or Opportunity for Nonprofits?" 181–195
Funding sources: and accountability conflicts, 179; of affiliate organizations, 358; of environmental organizations, 410–412; equality versus inequality among, 132–133; for higher education institutions, 217–219; managerial preference for, 32–34, 36; management of relationships with, 203–208; of national associations, 358; and proportion of women on boards, 249, 251; of Russian nonprofits, 48–50, 51. See also Cause-related marketing; Corporate philanthropy; Environmental cause-related marketing; Foundations; Grants; Philanthropy
Fundraising: board involvement in, by life-cycle stage, 371–372, 373, 374, 377; board performance of, and organizational effectiveness, 393, 396–397; in Canada, 86, 88–91; consultants' roles in, 67–83; gender differences in, 243; of national associations, 358; trends in, for environmental organizations, 404. See also Cause-related marketing; Corporate fundraising; Environmental cause-related marketing

G

Gale's Encyclopedia of Associations, 349
Gaul, G., Free Ride: The Tax-Exempt Economy, 93–101
Gender: and board effectiveness, 241–252; and career patterns, 334, 338, 343–344; and division of volunteer leadership, 55–65; and donor motivation, 314; and fundraising effectiveness, 243; and leadership effectiveness, 243–252; and leadership styles, 242, 252; psychological versus sociological perspectives on, 242–243. See also Women
Gendered-female sector, 312
Gift giving, and corporate philanthropy, 113–115
Girl Scouts USA, 10, 11, 13, 128, 348
Glaser, J., United Way Scandal, The: An Insider's Account of What Went Wrong and Why, 93–101
Globalization, and accountability, 158, 169, 191–192
Goal model of organizational effectiveness, 384–385. See also Organizational effectiveness
Golden-Biddle, K., "Managing Traditionality and Strategic Change in Nonprofit Organizations," 3–20
Goodwill, 109–110
Gore, A., 411
Governance: board involvement in, by life-cycle stage, 371, 373, 374; in Russian nonprofit sector, 47–48, 51; structure of, and strategic planning, 429–430; type of, and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 278–282, 284–286. See also Boards; Leadership
Government: and history of American nonprofits, 129–132; role of, in American life, 128–129, 150. See also Law; Legal accountability; Public sector
Grants, for fundraising consultations, 68–70

Grass-roots associations, classification of, 318–323
Greater London Council (GLC), 432
Green, J. C., "Board Performance and Organizational Effectiveness in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations," 381–402
Greenpeace, 411
Griesinger, D. W., "Board Performance and Organizational Effectiveness in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations," 381–402
Grønbjerg, K. A., Understanding Nonprofit Funding: Managing Revenues in Social Services and Community Development Organizations, 203–208
Group cohesion, and language, 229
Group membership, 185
Grunewald, D., "Saint Susan University," 197–201

H

Hammack, D. C.: "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: A Historical Perspective," 127–139; Nonprofit Organizations in a Market Economy: Understanding New Roles, Issues, and Trends, 203–208
Hamot Medical Center, 177
Hansmann model of pricing, 22, 23
Health associations, classification of, 318–319, 321, 322
Hegemonic ideology, 228
Hemphill, T. A., "Cause-Related Marketing, Fundraising, and Environmental Nonprofit Organizations," 403–418
Historical recordkeeping, 211–212
Horne, S., "Volunteers in Charity Retailing: Recruitment and Training," 255–270
Hospitals, and tax exempt status, 94
Howells, W. D., 107–108
Human resources, in Russian nonprofit sector, 50, 51. See also Employees; Volunteers
Human services. See Social services organizations

I

Ideology, and metaphorical language, 225, 227–239
Imagine campaign, 85, 88–91
Impropriety, appearance of, 173, 178
"Improving the International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations," 317–324
Impure altruism, 23–24
Incentive pay, 293, 299. See also Additional compensation pay systems
Incentives: and accountability, 186; financial, validity of, 291–302; in for-profit versus nonprofit organizations, 300; in principal-agent theory, 165–166; private, 160, 161; volunteer, 259–260. See also Additional compensation pay systems
Industry Commission of Australia, 225; methods of, 306; report of, on charity organizations, 305–310; role of, 305–306
Information sources, for nonprofit scholarship, 209–214
Information technology: and accountability, 158, 167–169, 192–193; and nonprofit scholarship, 213
Institutional (fundraising) board, 368–369. See also Boards
Integrity, safeguarding of, 174, 177–178
Interlegal Research Center, 43, 44, 47
Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3), and legal accountability, 148. See also Tax exemption
Internal Revenue Service: classification system of, 424; enforcement capability of, 151, 154
Internal Revenue Service Form 990, 148, 151
International Center for Nonprofit Law, 44
International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations (ICNPO): described, 318; multiple use of, 320, 321; suggested improvements to, 318–323
International development organization, legal liability of, 419–421
"Interview with Bill Scales, An," 305–310
"Interview with Martin P. Connell, An," 85–91
Introcaso, D. M., 113
Irreversible acts, 185
Italian Journeys (Howells), 107–108

J

James, H., 103
James model of pricing, 22, 23

Job information channels, for charity retail volunteers, 260–263, 265–266
Jobs. See Careers
Josephson Institute for the Advancement of Ethics, 173–175
Journals, professional, 160, 161
Joyce, J., 105
Justice, 109–110

K

Kasparov Fund, 49–50
Katherine Buildings, 104–105
Kearns, K. P., "Strategic Planning Research: Knowledge and Gaps," 429–439
Kennedy, D., 127
Kingma, B. R., "Do Profits 'Crowd Out' Donations, or Vice Versa? The Impact of Revenues from Sales on Donations to Local Chapters of the American Red Cross," 21–36

L

Language: and board culture, 227–239; domains of, relationships among, 235–237; and ideology, 228–229, 239; manners-related, 232–237; mission-related, 230–231, 235–237; operations-related, 231–232, 235–237; and organizational performance, 238–239
"Languages, Ideologies, and Cultures in Nonprofit Boards," 227–240
Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, 385
Law: versus ethics, 172, 175; for incentives systems, 292–293; versus intrinsic accountability, 181–193; role of, in promoting accountability, 143–144; and Russian nonprofits, 43–46, 50; state, for accountability, 144–147. See also Legal accountability; Regulation
Lawry, R. P., "Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations: An Ethical Perspective," 171–180
Leadership: and accountability, 183; corrupt, 93–100; and diversity, 192; by example, 174, 178; in Russian nonprofit sector, 46–47, 51; sexual division of, in nonprofit boards, 241–252; sexual division of, in voluntary organizations, 55–65. See also Governance
Legal accountability: authority for, 144, 150–152; corporation law and, 144–146; and current crisis, 149–151, 348; enforcement of, 153–154; overview of, in existing framework, 144–148; and political accountability, 150–151; reform of, 151–154; role of, 143–144; and stakeholders, 146–147; state law and, 144–147; tax-exemption law and, 147–148. See also Accountability
"Legal Issues for Nongovernment Organizations in Crisis," 419–421
Legal liability, of nongovernment organizations, 419–421
Legitimacy, public, 185
Life-cycle models of nonprofit boards, 367–377; in Canada versus United States, 377; empirical study of, 370–377; hypotheses of, 369–370; Mathiasen's version of, 368–370; measures used to test, 371–372; normative literature on, 367; viability of, 373–377; Wood's version of, 369–370. See also Age, organizational
Linear careers: defined, 332–333; and nonprofit sector employment, 340–341
Literature, philanthropy in, 103–110
Logic of collective action, 158–161
Logic of Collective Action, The (Olson), 159
Lombardo, B., 113–115
London voluntary agencies, strategic planning in, 432
Loyalty: duty of, 145; maintaining of, 168
Lyons, M., "An Interview with Bill Scales," 305–310

M

Maclean, M., "Careers in the Third Sector," 331–345
Majority rule, 162
Managerial preference, for revenue sources, 32–34, 36
Managers: accountability of, 157–169; role of, in creating accountability/behavior alignment, 185–187. See also Accountability; Leadership

"Managing Traditionality and Strategic Change in Nonprofit Organizations," 3–20
Mandel Center for Nonprofit Organizations, 121
Manners-related language, 232–237
Mansfield Park (Austen), 106
Market economy, nonprofit organizations in, 203–208
Market failure, and nonprofit existence, 160, 161
Market regulation, for accountability, 166, 172
"Masonry, Walls, and Rock Bolts: Challenges in Researching Nonprofit Organizations," 209–215
Mathiasen's NPO Board life-cycle model, 368–370. See also Life-cycle models
Mercy, 108
Merit pay, 293, 298, 299. See also Additional compensation pay systems
Meyer, J.E.W., "Masonry, Walls, and Rock Bolts: Challenges in Researching Nonprofit Organizations," 209–215
Minister's Charge, The (Howells), 108
Minorities: and accountability, 166–167; and ideology, 228. See also Diversity
Mission: board responsibility for, and organizational effectiveness, 392, 395–396; and corporate alliances, 218; focus on, versus bottom line, 206–207, 235–236, 238; language related to, 230–231, 235–237; of nonprofit versus for-profit organizations, 4; of nonprofit organizations, and traditionality, 9–10; and safeguarding of integrity, 174, 177–178
Model tenements, 104–105
Monitoring: versus enabling, 186–187; and principal-agent theory, 165
Morality, 172
Moscow, nonprofit social services in, 42–52. See also Russia
Moscow Jewish Charity Fund, 43. See also Yad Ezra
Motivation, donor: mixed, 105–107; and pricing/donation crowd out, 23–24; and social control, 106; of women, 314
Motivation, employee: age differences in, 338; and career patterns, 331–344; changes in, 297–298; gender differences in, 338; and incentives, 294–295, 297–298; for job selection, 337–340; in nonprofit versus public sectors, 294; and rewards, 342–344
Motivation, volunteer: matching incentives to, 259–260; and recruitment strategies, 265–266
Moyer, M. S., "An Interview with Martin P. Connell," 85–91
Mrs. Raffles (Bang), 105–106
Murray, V., "Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379; "Women on Boards of Nonprofits: What Difference Do They Make?" 241–254

N

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 142
National associations with local affiliates: accountability of, and organizational structure, 347–363; characteristics of, by organizational structure, 357–358; division of responsibilities among, 353–356, 359–360; organizational structures of, by field of service and budget size, 350–353; regulation of affiliates by, 357; research agenda for, 362–363; study of, 349–363
National Audubon Society, 406, 407, 411
National Football League, 94
National Park Foundation, 408
National Parks and Conservation Association, 408
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 317–318, 322
National Voluntary Organizations (NVO), 89
National Wildlife Federation, 406, 408
Natural systems model of organizational effectiveness, 383–384. See also Organizational effectiveness
Nature Conservancy, 406, 408, 410
Netting, F. E., "Languages, Ideologies, and Cultures in Nonprofit Boards," 227–240
"New Frontiers: Women and Girls Encounter the Nonprofit Sector," 311–315

New York Historical Society, 128
New York School of Social Work, 135
Nonprofit groups, versus nonprofit organizations, 317. See also Nonprofit organizations
Nonprofit Organization Handbook, The, 317–318
Nonprofit organizations (NPOs): additional compensation pay systems in, 299–302; advocacy-based mission of, 4, 9–10; characteristics of, and employment, 333; classification systems of, 225–226, 317–323; conflicts of, inherent, 132–133; constituencies of, 159–161, 165–166, 176–179; and constitutional freedoms, 129–130; demographic diversity and, 166–167; globalization and, 169; and government, historical background of, 130–132; information technology and, 167–169; in market economy, 203–208; mismanagement and abuse of, 93–100, 121, 127–128, 142; versus nonprofit groups, 317; pricing models of, 22–24; scholarly research of, special problems of, 209–214; strategic organizational change versus traditionality in, 3–18; volunteer-managed, 271–287. See also Environmental organizations; National associations; Social services organizations; Volunteer-managed nonprofit organizations
Nonprofit Organizations in a Market Economy: Understanding New Roles, Issues, and Trends (Hammack), reviewed, 203–208
Nonprofit sector: in Australia, 305–310; in Canada, 85–91; career patterns in, 331–344; gendered-female, 312; research agenda for, 426–427; role of, in social welfare system, 425–426; in Russia, 39–52; theoretical models for, 427–428; in United States, introductory literature about, 423–428; women in, 311–315
Nonprofit Sector Research Fund of the Aspen Institute, 349
"Nonprofit Social Services in Moscow: Leadership and Administrative Issues," 39–54
Nygren, T. I., Charitable Nonprofits, The: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 423–428

O

Obedience, duty of, 145–146
Odendahl, T., Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, 311–315
Officers, standard, and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 278, 286
Old Town Folks (Stowe), 106–107, 109
Olson, M., 159
O'Neill, M., Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, 311–315
Onyx, J., "Careers in the Third Sector," 331–345
Open systems model, 5
Operations-related language, 231–232, 235–237
Organizational assessment, and nonprofit corruption, 100
Organizational change: and adaptability, 13–15; balancing of, with continuity, 17–18; customizing of, 14; ecological models of, 7–9; and environmental challenge, 11–13; environmental models of, 5–7; in nonprofit versus for-profit organizations, 3–5; and organizational identity, 11–13; research of, challenges of, 211; strategic, limitations of, 6–7; traditionality and, 11–15; types of, 12–13
Organizational consulting: fundraising consultants' role in, 82–83; models of, 70–80. See also Consultants, fundraising
Organizational culture: corporate, 343; and employee motivation, 343. See also Board culture
Organizational ecology, 7–8
Organizational effectiveness: assessment tools of, 385; board effectiveness and, 327, 381–399; board member assessments of, 389–390, 395; chief executive officer assessments of, 389–390, 395; and "felt responsibility," 181–193; goal model of, 384–385; and language, 238–239; measures of, 244–245, 272–273, 285, 383–385, 398; natural systems model of, 383–384; nonprofit, research on, 272; strategic planning and, 435–436; of volunteer-managed nonprofits, 225, 271–287; women on boards and, 243–252. See also

Board effectiveness; Reputational effectiveness
Organizational identity, and change, 11–13
Organizational structure: by affiliate characteristics, 357; by budget size, 352; corporate type of, 350–353; division of responsibilities by, 353–356, 359–360; federal type of, 350–356; by field of service, 352; fundraising practices and, 358; by national association characteristics, 357; and organizational age, 376; relationship of, to self-regulation ability, 347–349, 360–363; research agenda for, 362–363; systems theory and, 376; trade type of, 350–356; types of, among national associations with affiliates, 350–353. See also Corporate structure; Federal structure; Trade structure
Organizational survival: alternative theories of, 7–9; prevailing theories of, 5–7
Organizations: and environment, 5–6; evolutionary theory of, 7–8, 14–15. See also For-profit organizations; Nonprofit organizations; Public sector
Organizing board of volunteers, 368. See also Boards
Othello, 173–174
Ownership: and accountability, 187; and felt responsibility, 184
Oxfam, 255

P

Partnership Umbrella, 97
Pepsi, 198
Payton, R. L., 113–114, 115–116
Performance-based employee incentive pay systems. See Additional compensation pay systems
Perlmutter, F. D., "Nonprofit Social Services in Moscow: Leadership and Administrative Issues," 39–54
Personal development motivation, 341
Philanthropy: in Canada, 85–91; in Canada versus United States, 87–88; meaning of, portrayed in literature, 103–110; secularization and, 134–135; of women, 225
Points of Light Foundation, 142
Power, abuse of. See Abuse; Scandal
Practices, constancy of, 10–11, 16. See also traditionality
Pravlenie, 47
Preston model of pricing, 22, 23
Pricing: and donations, 21–36; economic theories of, 22–24; in nonprofit versus for-profit organizations, 21–22
Prince, R. A., 115
Principal-agent theory, 158, 164–166; and alignment of behavior with accountability, 186–187; and mixed public-private economy, 205
Private sector organizations. See For-profit organizations
Privatization: and Australian nonprofits, 335; and Russian nonprofits, 44, 48–450, 51; of universities, 219
Process consulting model, 78–80
Productivity: additional compensation pay systems and, 292–301; measurement of, 300. See also Organizational effectiveness
Profits, impact of, on donations, 21–36
Property rights, and Russian nonprofits, 44, 46
Proximity, and accountability, 186
Public choice theory, 158–161
Public goods, 159
Public scrutiny, and accountability, 175, 177–178, 348. See also Financial disclosure
Public sector: additional compensation pay systems in, 298–299; Australian, and nonprofit sector, 308–309; employee motivation in, 298; employment in, 333
Punctuated equilibrium model of change, 8
Punishment, and accountability, 186

R

Records management, 211–212
Recruitment: board member, 371, 372, 373; volunteer, in charity retailing, 225, 260–263, 265–266
Registration, in Russia, 44–46
Registration statutes, 146
Regulation: of cause-related marketing alliances, 415–416; versus intrinsic accountability, 181–193; lack of, and

Regulation (continued)
accountability, 172–175; and legal accountability, 144, 154; self-, through intrinsic accountability, 181–193; self-, through organizational structure, 347–363. See also Law
Reinventing Fundraising: Realizing the Potential of Women's Philanthropy (Shaw, Taylor), reviewed, 311–315
Religious commitment, and job selection, 338
Religious organizations: classification of, 319, 321, 322; and corporate group sponsors, 133–135; funding of, 132; historical background of, 129–130, 133–134; and secularization, 135. See also Church philanthropy
Reno, J., 174
Reporting, and accountability, 175, 177–178, 187. See also Financial disclosure
Reporting statutes, 146, 154
Reputation: and accountability, 173–174, 178; as organizational effectiveness variable, 272–273, 274–275, 276
Reputational effectiveness: explanation of, 286–287; formalization and, 282–283, 285, 286; governance and, 278–282, 284–286; measure of, 274–275; nature of group and, 275–278, 281, 285, 286; versus other effectiveness measures, 275, 276; validity of, 272–273, 275, 276; of volunteer–managed nonprofits, 271–287
Research agenda: for additional compensation pay systems, 301–302; for national association organizational structures, 362–363; for nonprofit organizations, 209–214; for nonprofit sector, 426–428; for organizational change, 211; for organizational effectiveness, 272; for strategic planning, 433–436
Research Reports: "The Blue River of Truth: Literature and Philanthropy," 103–111; "Improving the International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations," 317–324; "Masonry, Walls, and Rock Bolts: Challenges in Researching Nonprofit Organizations," 209–215; "Strategic Planning Research: Knowledge and Gaps," 429–439
Resource dependence perspective: and goal model of organizational effectiveness, 384; and volunteer-managed nonprofits, 277–278; and women on boards, 243, 244, 251
"Resources for Scholars, Practitioners, and Policymakers: Two Introductions to the Nonprofit Sector," 423–428
Respect, mutual, 185
Responsibility: and accountability, 123, 174–175, 183–193; "felt," 183–193; promotion of, 184–185; shared, 185; and the social promise, 187–189. See also Accountability
Retention, volunteer, in charity retailing, 259–260
Revenue size: and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 277–278, 286; and women on boards, 243, 244, 251
Rewards: and accountability, 186; alignment of, with employee motivational needs, 342–344; and volunteer retention, 259–260. See also Additional compensation pay systems; Compensation; Incentives
Rockefeller Brothers Fund, 40
Role clarity, 184, 185
"Roles Consultants Play in Successful Fundraising Interventions," 67–83
Russian nonprofits: financial resources of, 48–50, 51; foreign aid and, 42, 49, 51–52; governance of, 47–48, 51; historical overview of, 40–42; human resources of, 50, 51; leadership of, 46–47, 52; legal framework of, 41–42, 43–46; recommendations for, 50–52; research on, need of, 52; social service, 39–52: versus Western nonprofits, 39–40

S

Saidel, J. R., "Charting Unexplored Territory: Nonprofit Funding Relations and the Nonprofit Market Relationship," 203–208
"Saint Susan University," 197–201
Salamon, L. M., America's Nonprofit Sector: A Primer, 423–428
Sales: impact of, on donations, 21–36; and managerial preferences, 32–34, 36; volunteers in, 255–267
Salipante, P. F., "Managing Traditionality and

Strategic Change in Nonprofit Organizations," 3–20
Samuel Johnson (Wain), 109–110
San Francisco Arts Festival, 403
San Francisco Foundation, 68
Sanger, M., 212
Save the Whales, 411
Scales, B., interviewed, 305–310
Scandal: and accountability, 121, 127–128; in nonprofit sector, 93–100, 347–348. See also Accountability
Scarpino, G., "Strategic Planning Research: Knowledge and Gaps," 429–439
Schiff and Weisbrod model of pricing, 22, 23
Scholarship, about nonprofit sector, 209–214, 426–428. See also Research agenda
School services groups, classification of, 318, 321, 322
Scotland, charity retail chain volunteers study, 225, 257–267
Secularization, 134–135
Self-help health groups, classification of, 318–319, 321, 322
Settlements, 104–105
"Sex, Greed, and Nonprofit Mismanagement: A Review Essay," 93–101
"Sexual Division of Leadership in Voluntary Emergency Medical Service Squads, The," 55–66
Sexual harassment, 99–100
Shaw, S. C., Reinventing Fundraising: Realizing the Potential of Women's Philanthropy, 311–315
Shen, C., "Factors Characterizing the Most Effective Nonprofits Managed by Volunteers," 271–289
Shriner Hospitals for Crippled Children, 176–177
Sierra Club, 406, 409, 411
Size, organizational: of board, by life-cycle stage, 372, 373, 375; and nonprofit employment patterns, 334–335; and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 276–277, 286; women on boards and, 248, 249, 250
Smith, D. H., "Factors Characterizing the Most Effective Nonprofits Managed by Volunteers," 271–289; "Improving the International Classification of Nonprofit Organizations," 317–324
Social change motivation: and job selection, 338–339, 341; and nonprofit organizational culture, 343
Social Choice and Individual Values (Arrow), 161–162
Social choice theory, 158, 161–164
Social control, 106
Social promise, 187–189; and conversation, 190
Social services organizations: board and organizational effectiveness in, 381–399; for developmentally disabled adults, 381–399; national, organizational structures of, 351–353; revenue management in, 203–208; women employed in, 334
Social trends, and accountability, 158
Spiral careers: defined, 332; and nonprofit employment, 341, 343
Staff, in Russian nonprofits, 50, 51. See also Employees
Staff leadership, and volunteer-managed nonprofit effectiveness, 280, 281
Stakeholders: authority of, and accountability, 146–147, 151–252; division among, in commercial-contract case study, 197–201
Stanford University, 127
State law, for accountability, 144–147. See also Law; Legal accountability
Statue of Liberty restoration project, 403–404, 405
Steady-state careers, 332
Stowe, H. B., 106–107, 109
Strategic management: limitations of, 3–5; of organizational change, 6–7
Strategic planning: analytical tools for, 430; and board effectiveness, 429–430, 435; and board life-cycle, 376–377; board responsibility for, and organizational effectiveness, 392, 395–396; contexts and processes of, 434–435; defining, 433–434; degree of institutionalization of, 433–434; and governance structure, 429–430; hostility toward, 432; impacts of, on organizational effectiveness, 435–436; measures of, 245–246; and organizational structure, 354, 356; process models for, 431–434

Strategic planning research: anecdotal-style, 430–431; categories of, 429; defining contexts and processes for, 434–435; defining and measuring the dependent variable for, 435–436; defining and measuring the independent variable for, 433–434; empirical research style, 431–433; exhortation-style, 429–430; gaps in, 433–436; normative-style, 430
"Strategic Planning Research: Knowledge and Gaps," 429–439
Strategic rationality, challenges to, 6–7
Structural change, theory of, 6
"Structure and Accountability: A Study of National Nonprofit Associations," 347–365
"Systematic exploitation of the great by the small" hypothesis, 159–160

T

Tax-exempt bonds, 94
Tax exemption: and cause-related marketing, 415–416; historical background of, 128–130; inappropriate, 94; and legal accountability, 147–148; proposals for reform of, 152–153; and Russian nonprofit sector, 50
Tax price: of American Red Cross donations, 27–28; of nonprofit organizations, 94
Taylor, M. A., Reinventing Fundraising: Realizing the Potential of Women's Philanthropy, 311–315
Team structure, employees' preference for, 340
Terminology, cataloguing, 213
Think Tank on Accountability and Nonprofit Organizations, 123–124; "The Accountable Not-for-Profit Organization" statement of principles, 123, 124–125
Thompson, A. M., III, "The Sexual Division of Leadership in Voluntary Emergency Medical Service Squads," 55–66
Toynbee Hall, 104
Trade structure, 350–353; accountability within, 360–361; characteristics of, 357–358; division of responsibilities within, 354; national associations with, by field of service and budget, 352; versus other structures, 353–360. See also Organizational structure
Traditionality: balancing of, with change, 17–18; capitalizing on, 16–17; defined, 9; and core expertise, 10–11, 14, 16; and mission, 9–10; in nonprofit organizations, 9–18; and organizational change, 11–15; role of, in adaptability, 13–15
Training, volunteer, in charity retailing, 225, 263–264, 266–267
Transitory careers: defined, 332; in nonprofit sector, 33
Trustees, moral responsibilities of, 178. See also Boards
Trusteeship, in Russian nonprofit sector, 47–48, 51. See also Boards
Turner, S. E., Charitable Nonprofits, The: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 423–428

U

Uncertainty, and rational strategic change, 6–7
Understanding Nonprofit Funding: Managing Revenues in Social Services and Community Development Organizations (Grønbjerg), reviewed, 203–208
United Cancer Council (UCC), 142
United Kingdom, charity retailing in, 255–267
United Way Moscow, 42, 43, 44, 47–48
United Way of America, 94–98, 127, 142, 347, 361–362
United Way Scandal, The: An Insider's Account of What Went Wrong and Why (Glaser), reviewed, 93–101
United Way, The: Dilemmas of Organized Charity (Brilliant), reviewed, 93–101
Universal domain, 162, 163
Universities: business contracting with, 197–201, 217–219; financial survival of, 217–219; research, 217–218; and tax exempt status, 94
U.S. Aging Policy Interest Groups, 211
U.S. Constitution: and legal accountability, 147–148; and nonprofit history, 129–132; and role of government, 129, 131–132

V

"Validity of Supplementary Pay Systems in Nonprofit Organizations, The," 291–304

Value-based rules, 144
Values, and board metaphorical language, 225, 227–239
Van Til, J., "Sex, Greed, and Nonprofit Mismanagement: A Review Essay," 93–101
Venetian Life (Howells), 108
Verbotskeii, A., 46–47
Vision, shared, measures of, 245
Voluntary groups, logic of collective action in, 158–161
Volunteer governing board, 368. See also Boards
Volunteerism: in Canada, 85–91; in Canada versus United States, 87–88
Volunteer-managed nonprofit organizations (VMNOs): age of, 276–277, 286; boards of directors of, 278–280, 281, 286; committees of, 281–282, 286; formalization of, 282–283, 285, 286; governance of, 278–282, 284–286; nature of, 275–278, 281, 285, 286; organizational effectiveness of, 275–286; versus paid staff nonprofit organizations, 285; public benefit versus member-only benefit, 276–277, 286, 320–321; reputational effectiveness of, variables in, 275–283; revenue size of, 277–278, 286; size of, 276–277, 286; staff leadership of, 280; standard officers of, 278, 286. See also Nonprofit organizations
Volunteers: board involvement with, 371, 374; in charity retailing, 225, 255–267; competition for, 265, 266; paid staff as, 339–340; recruitment of, 225, 260–263, 265–266; retention of, 259–260; in Russian nonprofits, 50, 51; sexual division of leadership among, 55–65; training of, 225, 263–264, 266–267. See also Motivation, volunteer
"Volunteers in Charity Retailing: Recruitment and Training," 255–270
von Schlegell, A. J., Women as Donors, Women as Philanthropists, 311–315
Voting rights, 167

W

Wain, J., 109–110
Wealth: of donors, and equality, 132–133; in nonprofit organizations, 133
Webb, B., 104–105
What Maisie Knew (James), 103
Wilderness Society, 409, 411
Wolpin, J., "Boards of Directors in Nonprofit Organizations: Do They Follow a Life-Cycle Model?" 367–379; "Women on Boards of Nonprofits: What Difference Do They Make?" 241–254
Women: on boards, and board prestige, 243, 250–251; on boards, impact of, 225, 241–252; on boards, proportion of, 243–252; discrimination against, 55–65; and nonprofit career patterns, 334, 336, 337, 342, 343–344; in nonprofit sector, 311–315; in nonprofit sector, proportion of, 334; as philanthropists, 225, 311–315; research about leadership of, 241–243; sexual harassment of, 99–100; sociological versus psychological perspectives on, 242–243, 251–252; in workforce, 334, 335. See also Gender
Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector (Odendahl, O'Neill), 311–315
Women as Donors, Women as Philanthropists (von Schlegell, Fisher), reviewed, 311–315
"Women on Boards of Nonprofits: What Difference Do They Make?" 241–254
Wood's NPO Board life-cycle model, 369–370. See also Life-cycle models
Work environment, and nonprofit employee motivation, 340, 341
Workplace diversity, and accountability, 158, 166–167
World Wildlife Fund, 406, 409

X

Xenophon, 165

Y

Yad Ezra, 43, 45, 47
Young, D. R., "Editors' Notes," 1–2, 121–124, 225–226, 327–329; "Structure and Accountability: A Study of National Nonprofit Associations," 347–365